

SKSR. General meeting October 26, 2017

Location: Sno-Isle Le Bistro, Everett, Wa

Luncheon was served by the LeBistro culinary arts students.

Jim introduced Dr. Rebecca Miner, Shoreline Superintendent. She spoke to the happenings in Shoreline including the construction of several schools, both elementary and middle.

Mary Kozy was the featured speaker. She gave a general overview of beginning genealogy titled Where Do I Start? There were, also, handout materials and a display made available by the Sno-Isle Genealogical Society.

Co-President Jim Siscel called the meeting to order at 2:00 pm.

Tom Hawkins handed out the proposed budget. It was moved and seconded to accept the budget. Motion passed.

Jan Phillips talked about the next general meeting. It will be held at the Edmonds Unitarian Church at 10:30 on November 16. This is a Brunch meeting. The speakers will be Dr. McDuffy, Edmonds School Superintendent and the program called Courthouse Dogs.

Roberta Hawkins talked briefly about our service project, helping Food Lifeline. It will be on January 18, 2018. The plan is to meet at Aurora Village to carpool down.

Rita gave a legislative report. The main objectives continue to be: COLA for TRS 1 and PERS 1, a continued contribution by the state to the health care, to continue the restoration to the budget of monies they did not contribute in the 70's, and maintain the structure of Plans 2 & 3. She, also, went over the need for a different person for her position.

Bev Smith, NW-1 representative, introduced herself. She then talked about the need to help with next year's state convention. She also talked about President Kurt Horne and his approach for the next year.

Meeting adjourned at 2:20.

Respectfully submitted

Jan Phillips, secretary
