The SKSR Bulletin

A message from our president

What? Who, me? No way!

by Bob Jones, 425-787-2727

All across the state at this time of year individuals are telling themselves, "If you told me last year I would be the unit president now, I would have told you that you are nuts." It's true. At the convention at Wenatchee in June several presidents-elect said, "I can't believe they convinced me to do this." I was no exception. Never fear, I'm sure all of us will do our best to keep things moving and have programs of interest to the membership.

By the way, there are two or three classified retirees serving as presidents this year. We need more classified people willing to take leadership roles.

Speaking of programs, for this year we have tried to plan for various interests. I hope you will find them worthwhile to attend. We will have a K-9 unit demonstration (with dog) in September to start out the year. Then "Songs and Legends of Alaska," "Basic Wills and Estate Planning," a legislative breakfast, the Sound Singers (directed by a person known to you), Bob Slingland the WSSRA President-Elect, Junior Champion Ballroom Dancers, The Penny Creek Elementary Singers, and Bronn Journey, the well known harpist of our area. Six of the meetings will be with a luncheon. (Feed the body, and feed the soul.)

One thing that I want to mention is our board and unit standing. I believe we have one of the best boards in the state. Each person is happy and willing to serve in his/her respective area. By the time you read this we will have had a retreat at Ruthanne Warren's club house to plan the year and gone to the 16th Annual Joint Leadership Conference sponsored by WSSRA and the NRTA Division of AARP at the Wenatchee Convention Center. The purpose is to assist and strengthen local unit leaders in their activities and responsibilities. Some of our board members are also state chairpersons, though that

September 20 meeting information

The first meeting of the year will be held on Thursday, September 20, at the Edmonds School District Service Center. Tim Reeves, K-9 handler with the Everett Police Department since 1998, will bring his four-year-old German shepherd, Yasko. Tim will provide information on the program and share some interesting stories and experiences he and Yasko have had.

This will be a great opportunity for new retirees to reconnect with their former colleagues and to also learn more about SKSR. The meeting will begin at 1:00 PM and will last about an hour and one-half.

Entertainment 2002 Books

The 2002 Entertainment Books have been printed and I will pick ours up later this month. Let me know how many you want, and I'll get them to you as soon as possible. As far as I know, the price is still the same—$40. Contact me at 206-363-5753 or dmurrish@aol.com

Donna Murrish, Entertainment books chair

Member tidbits

Jim and Kay Cumming have relocated from Seattle to San Diego and are now sharing an apartment with their son, Larry. Larry is a civilian worker for the U.S. Navy in San Diego. Daughter, Karin, still lives in West Seattle where Jim and Kay lived for the past nine years. Kay underwent a triple cardiac by-pass operation on March 12 and is doing nicely. Jim blew out his right knee recently and may have to get a new knee. Kay would like to hear from any of those teachers who taught with her in Shoreline and Seattle.

A note was received from the wife of Robert Reed, who passed away in April. She said he had retired in 1988 after teaching in the social studies department of Shoreline High School since 1964.

RSVP Now Recruiting Reading Corps Volunteers

RSVP (Retired Senior Volunteer Program) and Powerful Partners (Schools and Communities Working Together) are now recruiting enthusiastic volunteers for the RSVP Reading Corps. Volunteers will tutor students in K-3 to help them learn to read at grade level by the third grade. All volunteers receive professional tutor training and will be supervised by classroom teachers. Powerful Partners is looking for help in six Edmonds School District elementary schools; however RSVP Reading Corps volunteers also provide one-on-one tutoring in reading and math to students in other elementary, middle and upper grades throughout Snohomish County. Volunteers are encouraged to make a commitment for one school year. Interested people should call RSVP at 425-290-1270 or email chill@sssc.org and request an application.

Program notes for this fall

October: At The Edmonds Unitarian Church for the Scholarship luncheon—"Songs and Legends of Alaska" by Joel Mattson on Bellevue. This is a fast-paced entertaining program of song, poems, sayings and legends collected by Joel through the years. He also has several items from Alaska to view. Tapes will be available as well.

November: At The Edmonds Service Center—"Basic Wills & Estate Planning." This seminar will provide you with the basic concepts surrounding wills and estate planning: Why you need a will, the advantages of living trusts, what you need to think about to prepare, and when you need a more detailed estate plan to minimize estate taxes.

December: A Legislature Breakfast: A place to meet your legislator and view areas of interest to you and what is happening in Olympia. The place will be determined later.

Remembering . . .

Maurice "Morris" Moses, longtime Edmonds School District custodian, passed away in May. "Mose," as the students knew him, was popular with students and staff alike at Madrona Junior High School and Woodway High School. While at Madrona he was honored with a "Mr. Moses Day," and Woodway's class of 1973 selected him to be the faculty speaker at their graduation.

In 1982 he was among the original inductees as one of the Edmonds School District's "Living Legends."

After retirement, Morris and his wife, Margaret, divided their time between their long-time home in downtown Edmonds and Yuma, Arizona, where they spent the winters. They especially enjoyed Arizona when their daughter, Teresa, her husband and their grandchildren were living there, too.

A service was held at the Edmonds United Methodist Church, with interment at Abbey View Cemetery.

Traveling with Terri

Washington has neat day trips for you

by Terri Malinowski, travel chair, 425-483-8344

Day trips are excellent ways to enjoy our beautiful state, particularly in autumn after the many visitors have left. Colorful fall leaves are in full show on the eastern slopes of the Cascades, accessible via six mountain passes—North Cascades, Stevens, Snoqualmie, Blewett, Chinook and White. The latter two passes, both ending in Yakima, also offer outstanding views of Mt. Rainier on sunny days.

Chinook Pass, reached by continuing eastward past the Crystal Mountain ski area, is our personal favorite. And an overnight stay in Yakima provides more time for an orchard tour and pursuit of the winery route through the Yakima Valley. The area has a number of excellent restaurants, as well.

Another personal favorite for a multi-day jaunt is the small-town triangle of Klickitat, White Salmon and Goldendale. Tucked into the eastern foothills just north of the Columbia River, these three towns are picturesque and relaxing. After viewing Chinook Pass and taking in the Yakima Valley, travelers can continue south from Yakima on Highway 97 to Goldendale.

Either turn westward on Route 142 at that point and meander through the fall leaves to Klickitat, or continue south to see the Maryhill Museum and Stonehenge replica at Maryhill.

Either route can then take travelers westward on Highway 14 along the north shore of the Columbia River, with an overnight stay just off the highway in White Salmon. Try the picturesque White Salmon Inn, for example.

But let's not digress too far from those day trips that can be so rewarding and enjoyable. SKSR member Donna Murrish and husband Ron recently took a day trip to beat all day trips and even managed to leave the "driving" to others! The couple drove to Kenmore Air Harbor one morning at 7 a.m. and parked their car. Boarding one of the familiar yellow and white float planes and swinging by Lake Union to pick up additional passengers, the Murrishes headed for Victoria, B.C.

They were treated to a birds-eye view of the San Juan Islands and the Straits of Juan de Fuca. Landing less than an hour later in the harbor below the stately Empress Hotel, the couple strolled to the hotel for a "truly wonderful buffet breakfast." Then it was off to catch a whale-watching boat. Heading out to sea for a couple of hours, the passengers caught sight of several whales as well as enjoying the ride and the vista of Victoria itself.

The couple returned to port with time yet to wander around the shops, visit the British Columbia Parliament and the city's famous museum, or enjoy a city tour. But the Murrishes decided instead on a local bus trip to Butchart Gardens to admire the gorgeous flowers on a perfect, sunny day.

Returning to their float plane, they flew back to Kenmore and

Our Past President serves others, too

Past president Jack Rogers spends much time serving as a volunteer. While a safety officer with the Shoreline School District, he was also on the Public Safety Commission, an advisory council to the mayor of Lake Forest Park. He chaired the commission for two years.

A rare life-long resident of Washington, he was born in Ellensburg. His teaching and administration careers were in the Shoreline School District. During that time Jack was selected as Washington State Teacher of the Year.

Jack now serves on the Northshore Fire Department Commission, the Shoreline Rotary (president-elect), the Shoreline Public Schools Foundation and the Shoreline Community College Foundation.

Jack admits it's hard to say "no" to people. "I was raised to give back to the community," he said. "That's why I enjoy the Rotary Club so much."

Jack, always interested in politics, has managed local Democratic candidate campaigns in the past. "In 1996 I ran for the State Legislature and lost by only 29 votes," he said. "Government and legislation have always fascinated me."

In his free time he likes to garden. "Don't look at my yard now, though," he said. He is slowly restoring a '34 Plymouth and confesses to a love of baseball and the Mariners. He and his wife are avid fans. "Right now, though, I'm in the middle of organizing the Shoreline School District Science Fair," he admits.

Sno-King School Retirees

Executive Board

Minutes

June 28, 2001

Present: Barbara Berg, Phyllis Enger, donna Murrish, Gayle Bromley, Rita Requa, Jack Rogers, Don Denton, Jo Caldwell, Bruce Caldwell

Meeting called to order by Jack Rogers.

Minutes of May meeting approved as printed.

Treasurer's Report

There will be a carryover for next year's budget.

Jack recommended that the scholarship committee consider increasing amount for each scholarships, as tuition for community college is now $650 per quarter.

Committee Reports

Newsletter deadline for Sept Bulletin is August 12.

55+ Alive Program dates: Sept. 5-6, Oct. 3-4, Nov. 7-8, Dec. 5-6.

Jack reviewed dates for next year's membership meetings. Discussion of low turnout for the December meeting led to suggestion that Legislative Breakfast could be considered a meeting.

Further discussion of this will be held at the August 23 Executive Board Retreat at Ruthanne Warren's Party Room. Betty Hurtig of SnoIsle wants to continue with our joint meeting and wants the same entertainment we had this year.

Officers: Next year's slate of officers will be installed at the Picnic, July 19. We still need to find President-Elect.

Picnic Planning

Don will be receiving WSSRA certificates for new retirees. Rita will calligraphy retirees' names on certificate and Jack will sign. Don will mail certificate, letter inviting people to the picnic and membership sign-up materials to each retiree.

Discussion was held on how to personalize the picnic for new retirees. Each Sno-King member will be responsible to host to a new retiree. This will be accomplished by Betty and Rita when they receive RSVP phone calls from members. Responsibilities of host would be:

1. Act as host during the picnic, sit with them, introduce to others, etc.

2. Collect name, address, phone number, email address

Menu items for picnic:

Betty: meatballs, plates, cups, napkins, beverages

Donna: potato and macaroni salads

Donna will help Betty with transporting food items.

Everyone should be there at 10:00 AM to help set up.

Program will include: Introductions first, (Retirees are first in line for lunch) Pitch membership, Singing with song sheets, socialize, eat.

Don't forget cleanup at Rhododendron Park on July 17, 10AM to noon. Bring sun hat, favorite tool, gloves, brushes, etc. Let Bob Jones know by July 4 if you are coming (425-787-2727) so that he can make appropriate reservations for lunch.

Meeting adjourned, 1:50 PM

SKSR Picnic 2002

New SKSR President Bob Jones welcomes the nearly 60 attendees at the annual picnic at Rhodendron Park in Kenmore. Though the weather was cloudy in the morning, by afternoon the sun was shining on those in attendance.

Jim Lockhart stops to visit with Diana McQuay and John Mansfield. The picnic afforded opportunity for old friends to see one another as well as to make new acquaintances.

Welcomed were new retirees Carol Aquayo—North City (Shoreline), Jerry Swenson—Brier Elementary (Edmonds), Paul Hipke—Einstein (Shoreline), Bob Schlaman—Mountlake Terrace High (Edmonds) and Fred Matteucci—Shorecrest (Shoreline). They received a directory, Bulletin and certificate of appreciation.

Betty Odle serves up some of her delicious meatballs to Hal Broenkow. In addition to preparing food, volunteer members also cleaned up the park prior to the day of the picnic.

During the meal, Joe and Pat Pettelle, Cheryl Bickford and Sylvia Haven visit with Jim and Marianne Lockhart. The meal consisted of meatballs, salads, snacks, dessert and beverages—all prepared by member volunteers.

is not part of the duties of board membership. As a side note, SKSR has 29 members on its board. That's eight more than the whole membership of the smallest unit in the state. (Unit 10, Klickitat Co.) Our total membership is 1245, one of the four largest in the state.

At the picnic to welcome the new retirees, I said, "Retired is spelled RE-TIRED which means to put on a new set of wheels to go faster. Get busy so we can say, Ask the busy person to do something so you know it will get done." Sno-King needs even more people to help. Remember that the board meetings are open, so come visit us. Maybe you will find one more thing you wish to do. Or just come to see what's going on.

The Murrishes heard about this day trip on a local radio station. The total price of $416 for two included the round-trip flight, the ample buffet breakfast and the whale-watching trip. And they had several hours of free time to pursue their own pleasures. Sounds like a winner!

Newly retired?

Join with us

by Don Denton, 425-787-7881

In June, 87 school employees from Edmonds, Northshore and Shoreline earned the new designation of "Retiree." Thirty-seven of these people had either joined Sno-King while they were employed and were automatically transferred from being "active" to "retired" members or joined upon retiring. When I use the term "active," it refers to those who are currently employed in school business. Although most of us retirees are more active than we would like to be at times, we are still designated as retirees.

If you are a non-member who has received this complementary copy of our Bulletin, we would like you to join us in working to improve the retirement system. Most people (16,000 members state-wide) do this by paying dues of $4.00 per month. Some volunteer their time, too.

$3.00 of the $4.00 goes to our state organization, the Washington State School Retirees Association and is used mostly for informing legislators of our needs and informing members on issues and activities of interest. The other $1.00 each month goes to support our local unit. Our greatest expenditures are our newsletters, our directory and our scholarships.

In the next column is a membership form. If you are not a member, we urge you to complete the form and send it to the return address on this Bulletin. Or look under your stack of to-do items and you will probably find the form and stamped envelope I sent you earlier. Please join us! We need you, and you need us. Call me with questions.

Welcome retirees!

SKSR is delighted to welcome the following 87 people to the best job they'll ever have—retirement. As of July 1, 2001, these individuals have retired from the Edmonds, Northshore and Shoreline (Sno-King) school districts. Help us encourage them to join SKSR and become involved with issues affecting retirement pay and welfare. Those who are not members are encouraged to send in the form on page 10. Other retirees and current employees are encouraged to join with us, too.
